

Year One

Autumn Term

'Our Brilliant Busy Body'

Literacy

Books we look at...

Non-fiction texts about our body
(linked to science)

Feely books (linked to science)

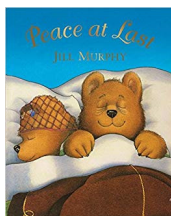

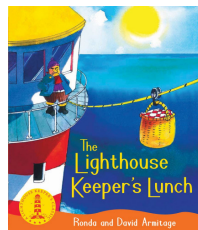

Anna's Amazing Multi-coloured Glasses

Poetry (fireworks)

The Lighthouse Keepers Lunch

Peace at Last

The Christmas Story (linked to RE)

We learn to...

Label a picture

Make a non-fiction book

Write a story

Write a poem

Write instructions

Retell traditional stories

Write speech bubbles

Maths

We learn...

Number and place value

Addition and subtraction

Multiplication and division

Shape- 2D and 3D

Measurement (length, weight, capacity and time)

Halving and quartering (shapes, objects and numbers)

Science

We learn about...

Our body parts and our senses

Seasonal change including weather

During Science Week in October we do lots of exciting experiments linked to our senses. Children also bring in their own experiments to share with their class.

Computing

Using the notepads, iPad and Touch Board to create pictures, include text and explore the internet with support of the teacher.

Design & Technology

Making glasses

Making sandwiches

Bake a Harvest Loaf

Junk modelling

Geography

Places we have been on holiday

History

Sorting old and new toys

Art

Portraits- painting, sketching, clay and in the style of Picasso

Colour collages

Paul Klee- Autumn finger print tree

RE

Belonging

Harvest

Celebration

The Christmas Story

PE

Gymnastics, Dance, Games

